constellations. He discusses a wide-range of critical positions, identifies the limits of comparative and post-colonial approaches and examines two specific cases: literature written by migrant writers and the literature of genocide, war and disaster. Mapping World Literature captures new ways of understanding the patterns and trends that emerge in literature, opening up and inspiring research to map patterns in the field.

Birth and Death of the Housewife
Paola Masino 2010-07-02
First English translation of Paola Masino's Nascita e morte della massaia, her most controversial novel that provoked Fascist censorship for its critical portrayal of marriage and motherhood.

Landscapes After the Battle
Jean Goytisolo 1987
Trapped in his apartment in an immigrant district of Paris, the narrator is far from the high life of museums, elegant restaurants and boutiques. Within this imprisonment, his thoughts oscillate between revolutionary terrorism and pre-pubescent sexuality - a concern he shares with Lewis Carroll. Refracting the conventions of fictional travel, Landscapes After the Battle is to be understood from the perspective of its end; an enigma where the relationship between writer, reader and the written is revealed as playful and humorous. The appearance of the comic in a novel by Juan Goytisolo is unexpected, like Don Quixote at a haikufestival convention.

The Order Has Been Carried Out
Alessandro Portelli 2016-06-01
On March 24, 1944, Nazi occupation forces in Rome killed 335 unarmed civilians in retaliation for a partisan attack the day before. Portelli has crafted an elegant, multi-voiced oral history of the massacre, of its background and its aftermath. This moving stories of the victims, the women and children who survived and continued, and the partisans who fought the Nazis, and the common people who lived through the tragedies of the war together paint a many-faceted portrait of one of the world's most richly historical cities. The Order Has Been Carried Out powerfully relates the struggles for freedom under Fascism and Nazism, the battles for memory in post-war democracy, and the meanings of death and grief in modern society.

The Star-treader
Clark Ashton Smith 1912

TransArea
Ottmar Ette 2016-07-11
Ottmar Ette's TransArea proceeds from the thesis that globalization is not a recent phenomenon, but rather, a process of long duration that may be divided into four overarching phases: accumulative globalization, phase globalisation, phase expansion, phase development. These phases connect our present, across the world's weakly-differentiated modernities, to the periods of early modern history. Ette demonstrates how the literatures of the world make possible a tangible perception of this which constitutes life, death, our planet, and our future, which may only be understood through the application of multiple logics. TransArea is not substitute for the knowledge of literature; it is the knowledge of life, from life. This English translation will be of great interest to English-speaking scholars in the fields of Cultural Studies, Theory, Literature, and Performing Arts, and many more. About the author Ottmar Ette has been Chair of Romance Literature at the University of Potsdam, Germany, since 1995. He is Honorary Member of the Modern Language Association of America (MLA) (elected in 2010), member of the Berlin Brandenburg Academy of Sciences and Humanities (elected in 2012), and regular member of the Academia Europaea (since 2010).

Symmetries
Luisa Valenzuela 1998
Stories by an Argentinian writer. They range from The Charm Against Storms, on the Sandinista revolution in Nicaragua, to Tango, in which a woman describes the sort of relationship the dance can create between two people.

Frederick the Second
Ernst Kantorowicz 2017-06-20
FREDERICK THE SECOND is the story of the remarkable man whose power and sphere of influence exceeded the reach of Christianity and of Rome. From the last of the Hohenstaufens, Napoleon Bonaparte and King of Italy and Jerusalem, Frederick II was an enigmatic and versatile ruler, a frail man of men. He is the first in a series of books that compare different periods of European history; a complex man of cultural tastes and complex manners who had unusually wide intellectual interests. At his Sicilian court scholars of all religions were welcome - Christian, Jewish, Mohammedan. He founded the University of Naples in 1224 and was a patron of the arts and sciences. The life of this dynamic man is fully explored in Ernst Kantorowicz's notable biography, filled with dramatic incident and absorbing detail, and written with style and scholarship.

Erections, Ejaculations, Exhibitions and General Tales of Ordinary Madness
